If you have personal goals to meet, taking care of your financial health is as important as taking care of your physical health. Nowadays, most people are conscious of keeping themselves in shape, so they will go for medical check-ups, look for healthy recipes, join a gym and so on. However, the importance of financial health is quite often overlooked.

If you

- want to grow and accumulate your wealth
- are concerned with transaction costs when investing in unit trusts
- appreciate that your fund portfolio will grow only if you position your funds in the right asset types at the right time, then HSBC's FundMax is a total wealth management solution that will help you build and manage your financial health wisely.

What is FundMax?

How can you benefit from FundMax?

1. All-in-one monthly fee, as low as 1.25% p.a.

- No upfront subscription and switching charges for your unit trust transactions
- Instead, a single monthly account fee is applied based on the average holding balance of open-end funds* in your FundMax account. So when you subscribe to a fund and then change to any other funds later on, you can save on the subscription and switching fees involved.
- Enjoy lower rate for higher balance maintained

Average holding balance	Account fee rate (p.a.) for HSBC One customer

How is the FundMax account fee calculated?

Monthly account fee =

Details of the account fee collected will be provided in the monthly account statement.

Example: Mr. Chan, an HSBC One customer, maintains a FundMax account with open-end fund holding during June 201X. The monthly account fee for June 201X is calculated as follows:

- Charging period: 1 - 30 June 201X (30 days; 365 days in the full year)
- Average holding balance of open-end funds for June 201X: HK$80,000
- Account fee for June 201X = HK$80,000 x 1.75% x 30 / 365 = HK$115.07

The account fee will be collected from your designated cash account on the last business day of the month.

2. Portfolio rebalancing made easy

 - Government bonds were the best performing asset class in 2008 (+13.7%), but also performed the worst in 2009 (+0.9%). (Source: MorningStar, HSBC)

- Monthly account fee will start to accrue from the date when unit trust holdings (excluding funds in the 'No Subscription Fee Series', CapitALL funds and guaranteed funds) ('Relevant Funds') are first recorded in the FundMax Account.
- Monthly account fee is calculated based on the average holding balance of Relevant Funds during the charging period and the rate corresponding to that balance. For funds denominated in foreign currencies, the holding balance in Hong Kong dollar equivalent will be used based on the prevailing exchange rate as of the date when the holding balance is calculated. The monthly account fee is calculated in Hong Kong dollar and charged in the denomination currency of your designated cash account at the prevailing exchange rate as of the date when the fee is collected if the cash account is denominated in currency other than Hong Kong dollars.
- The monthly account fee is collected on the last business day of each calendar month and on a full-month basis. If the date from when unit trust balance is first recorded does not cover a full month, the monthly account fee for that month will be charged in the following month. Details of the monthly account fee can be found in the monthly composite statement for your FundMax Account.

If you wish to change the designated cash account, the instruction must be received by the Bank 3 business days before the last business day of the month for the monthly account fee to be charged against the new cash account from that month.
- If the debit for monthly account fee has been unsuccessful for 3 consecutive months, the FundMax account will be suspended.

Account Closure

- Upon closure of FundMax Account, any accrued monthly account fee not yet charged will be collected from the designated cash account when all investment holdings have been redeemed or transferred out and the account is successfully closed.
- If the period between the date of completion of the last subscription or switching of any Relevant Funds using the FundMax Account and the date of account closure is less than 1 year, an administration fee based on the relevant minimum charging balance and the corresponding rate will be collected from your designated cash account for the period from the date following the account closure to the date of anniversary of that transaction.

Transfer

- For transfer-out of holdings in Relevant Funds from FundMax Account to other accounts, a transfer fee of 1% of prevailing market value of units being transferred will apply. The transfer fee will be charged against the designated cash account upon receipt of such instruction at the denomination currency of that cash account. If the fund denomination currency is not of the same currency as that of your designated cash account, the transfer fee will be converted to the denomination currency of your cash account at the prevailing exchange rate as of the date of collection. The transfer fee is not refundable irrespective of whether the transfer-out instruction is successfully executed or not.
